Dear Sir:

In response to a request from Ms. Doshie Day made in a telephone conversation of June 2, 2004, between Ms. Day of the Initial Patent Examination Division, and Applicant's representative, Mr. Silverman, attached please find a copy of the facsimile machine report and a copy of the "Response To File Missing Parts of Application" which was faxed to the Office, Mail Stop Missing Parts, on June 16, 2003, in connection with the subject application. This response contains the declaration signed by the inventors. Please reconsider the subject application in view Applicant's timely response to the Notice to File missing Parts. It is believed that no additional fees are due in connection with this application, and that the application is now in condition for examination.

An early and favorable action is courteously solicited.

Respectfully submitted
